

Missionary Prayer Calendar

January 10-15, 2022

- Mon. Jim & Debbie Samland, Faculty Commons, Oxford, Ohio. New Year's Eve, Jim received a call that his older brother, Tom, had passed away suddenly. Jim had just talked to him the week before. The funeral was last Thursday in Chicago. Pray for Jim & Debbie as they grieve themselves and attempt for be salt, light and comfort to Toms wife, adult children & the rest of the family.
- Tues. Brad & Mary Coon, Frontier Fellowship, Ipswich, MA. Pray for Ethiopia, Niger, Central Asia and other places in the world facing issues like political instability, civil unrest, food insecurity, poverty and more. Ask God to guide FF partners as they minister the Light of Christ in their communities.
- Wed. N & J had to go out of country over the holiday to renew their visas. When they return they have just one lesson left to complete the first of a six-phase language curriculum. During their trip, they have realized areas they have been too hard on themselves & too impatient with language. Pray they will be able to reorganize their schedule when they return to the field.
- Thur. Sam and Jill Tabienco, Reach Global EFCA, Madrid. Before Christmas, Jill tested positive for Covid and was confined to the bedroom of their house to prevent Sam from getting infected. She has just received a negative test result. Pray she is able to build physical & emotional stamina to continue ministry with the ladies she has been mentoring.
- Fri. Becca Ashton, CRU, International Christian School of Budapest. As a teacher recruiter, Becca is searching for teachers & staff for next year. She has listed 12 positions that need to be filled! Pray for the LORD to lead Becca to new avenues to seek out those who would meet the needs.
- Sat. Gary & Robyn Peterson, Wycliffe, Australia, in transition back to USA. During January, they are planning to meet with friends to say good-byes, starting to pass on some of their belongings including their car, which was a gift to them. They ask for God's leading as to whom they can bless by re-gifting the car. Gary will be tidying his office & updating his reports for whoever takes over when he leaves. Pray for the Lord to provide a successor soon for Gary to help in the transition of leadership.
